FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Trail Life USA Allies with Covenant Eyes to Offer Internet Accountability to Members

ORLANDO- In alignment with its core central values, Trail Life USA has announced an agreement with Covenant Eyes Internet Accountability and Filtering to provide members access to internet accountability and filtering services for free for two months.

"Purity is a central value to Trail Life USA," said Trail Life USA CEO Mark Hancock. "With a reported 71% of teens hiding online behavior, parents need tools to protect their children. We believe that Covenant Eyes has a good product and process for providing the type of accountability Trail Life USA moms and dads want for their families."

Covenant Eyes is offering Trail Life USA families the first two months of service free. Trail Life USA members can use this link to sign up before October 16 to receive the special offer (it will be automatically applied at checkout).

Trail Life USA has also established a limited scholarship fund to assist families that cannot afford the ongoing service.
